REDELK: ITALY'S #1 IN COMFORT TREKKING APPAREL

L'ALCE ROSSA

è il simbolo del COMFORT nell'Outdoor, la stella polare di ogni nostro capo.

Non per chi cerca la performance a tutti i costi per raggiungere le vette inesplorate, ma per chi ama immersersi nella natura senza pensieri, comodo ad ogni passo.

The RED ELK

is the symbol of COMFORT outdoors,
the guiding star for all our garments.

Not for those who chase performance at all costs to reach unexplored peaks, but for those who love to immerse themselves in nature without worries, comfortable at every step.

L'ELAN ROUGE

est le symbole du CONFORT en plein air, la boussole de tous nos vêtements.

Pas pour ceux qui poursuivent la performance à tout prix pour conquérir des sommets inconnus, mais pour ceux qui aiment se plonger dans la nature sans souci, à l'aise à chaque pas.

COMFORT come visione: quando lavoro e passione si incontrano.

Luca Colombo, oggi Brand Developer di RedElk, cresce immerso nel lavoro di famiglia: la produzione di abbigliamento.
Fin da giovane respira il mestiere tra tessuti e macchine da cucire, a stretto contatto con artigiani e specialisti del settore.

Appassionato trekker e sciatore, sperimenta sulla propria pelle i limiti dei capi presenti sul mercato:
spesso troppo rigidi, eccessivamente tecnici per un utilizzo non competitivo, oppure progettati pensando all'estetica e alla moda, non all'uso sui sentieri.
Il comfort finiva inevitabilmente in secondo piano.

"Troppe volte mi capitava di indossare dei capi 'cartonati' e fastidiosi, che non mi permettevano di muovermi come avrei voluto, realizzati con materiali pensati per condizioni estreme e che trascuravano completamente la comodità di chi li avrebbe usati ogni giorno".

Il consumatore veniva messo in secondo piano rispetto alle prestazioni del prodotto:
capi pensati per imprese estreme, con la convinzione che, se va bene per scalare l'Himalaya, andrà bene per qualsiasi altra attività.

"Mi sono reso conto che la comodità doveva diventare l'elemento centrale della progettazione e del design, non un optional".

Da questa convinzione, unita all'esperienza familiare nel mondo dell'abbigliamento, nasce RedElk, con una missione chiara:
creare abbigliamento outdoor pensato per vivere la natura al proprio ritmo, senza rinunciare al comfort.

COMFORT progettuale

Materiali elasticizzati, costruzioni che seguono il movimento e una ricerca specifica per ogni attività, con il trekking come punto centrale.
Il camminatore RedElk ama stare all'aria aperta, rispetta l'ambiente e sceglie capi comodi per godersi ogni avventura.

In montagna con gli amici o durante una passeggiata in un borgo remoto, con la voglia di esplorare nuovi paesaggi passo dopo passo,
al proprio ritmo, godendo del mondo in totale comodità.

ITALY'S #1 IN COMFORT TREKKING APPAREL

Le recensioni dei nostri clienti parlano chiaro:
i pantaloni da trekking Redelk sono riconosciuti per comfort e vestibilità, diventando il punto di riferimento delle nostre collezioni.

*"La cosa più sorprendente è sentirlo dire da chi ci scopre per la prima volta:
'Troppo comodi! Non voglio più togliermi questi pantaloni!'"*

RedElk è per chi...

...vive la montagna e la natura con naturalezza: non per sfidarla ma per goderla.
...non cerca la performance estrema, ma vuole sentirsi a proprio agio in ogni movimento.
...sceglie capi che mettano il comfort al primo posto, senza rinunciare a qualità, resistenza e stile.

Comfort as a vision:
when work and passion come together.

*Luca Colombo, now Brand Developer at RedElk, grew up immersed in his family's work: clothing manufacturing.
From a young age, he absorbed the craft among fabrics and sewing machines, working closely with artisans and industry specialists.*

A passionate trekker and skier, he personally experienced the limits of the garments available on the market:
often too stiff, excessively technical for non-competitive use, or designed with fashion and aesthetics in mind rather than actual trail use.
Comfort inevitably ended up taking a back seat.

"Too often I found myself wearing stiff, uncomfortable garments that didn't allow me to move the way I wanted, made with materials designed for extreme conditions and completely overlooking the comfort of those who would use them every day".

The consumer was placed in the background compared to the product's performance:
garments designed for extreme feats, with the belief that if they're good enough to climb the Himalayas, they'll be good enough also for other activities.

"I realized that comfort had to become the central element of design and development, not an optional feature".

From this belief, combined with family experience in the clothing industry, RedElk was born with a clear mission:
to create outdoor apparel designed for experiencing nature at your own rhythm, without giving up to comfort.

Functional COMFORT

Stretch materials, constructions that follow movement, and a specific research for each activity, with trekking as the central focus.
The RedElk hiker loves being outside, respects the environment, and chooses comfortable clothing to enjoy every adventure.

In the mountains with friends or on a walk through a remote village, with the desire to explore new landscapes step by step,
at your own pace, enjoying the world in complete comfort.

ITALY'S #1 IN COMFORT TREKKING APPAREL

Our customers' reviews speak for themselves:
Redelk trekking pants are recognized for their comfort and fit, becoming the benchmark of our collections.

*"The most surprising thing is hearing it from those who discover us for the first time:
'So comfortable! I never want to take these pants off!'"*

RedElk is for those who...

...lives the mountains and nature naturally: not to challenge it, but to enjoy it.
...doesn't seek extreme performance, but wants to feel comfortable in every movement.
...chooses garments that put comfort first, without sacrificing quality, durability, and style.

Confort comme vision:
lorsque travail et passion se recroisent.

Luca Colombo, aujourd'hui développeur de marque RedElk, il a grandi plongé dans le travail familial: la production de vêtement.
Depuis son plus jeune âge, il respire le métier entre tissus et machines à coudre, en étroite collaboration avec des artisans et des spécialistes du secteur.

Passionné de trekking et de ski, il expérimente lui-même les limites des vêtements présents sur le marché:
souvent trop rigides, trop techniques pour un usage non compétitif, ou bien conçus en pensant à l'esthétique et à la mode plutôt qu'à l'utilisation sur les sentiers.
Le confort passait inévitablement au second plan.

« Trop souvent, il m'arrivait de porter des vêtements rigides « comme du carton » et désagréables, qui ne me permettaient pas de bouger comme je l'aurais voulu, réalisés avec des matériaux conçus pour des conditions extrêmes et qui négligeaient complètement le confort de ceux qui les utiliseraient au quotidien. »

Le consommateur était relégué au second plan par rapport aux performances du produit :
des vêtements pensés pour des exploits extrêmes, avec la conviction que si c'est adapté pour gravir l'Himalaya, cela conviendra à n'importe quelle autre activité.

*« Je me suis rendu compte que le confort devait devenir
l'élément central de la conception et du design, et non une simple option. »*

De cette conviction, unie à l'expérience familiale dans le monde des vêtements, est née RedElk, avec une mission claire:
créer des vêtements outdoor pensés pour vivre la nature à son propre rythme, sans renoncer au confort.

COMFORT de conception

Des matériaux extensibles, des constructions qui accompagnent le mouvement et une recherche spécifique pour chaque activité, avec le trekking comme point central.
Le marcheur RedElk aime être au grand air, respecte l'environnement et choisit des vêtements confortables pour profiter de chaque aventure.

En montagne avec des amis ou lors d'une promenade dans un village isolé, avec l'envie d'explorer de nouveaux paysages, pas après pas, à son propre rythme, en savourant le monde dans un confort total.

N°1 EN ITALIE DANS LES VÊTEMENTS DE TREKKING CONFORTABLE

Les avis de nos clients sont clairs :
les pantalons de trekking Redelk sont reconnus pour leur confort et leur coupe, devenant la référence de nos collections.

*« Le plus surprenant, c'est de l'entendre dire par ceux qui nous découvrent pour la première fois :
"Beaucoup trop confortables ! Je ne veux plus enlever ces pantalons !" »*

RedElk est fait pour ceux qui...

...vit la montagne et la nature en toute simplicité : non pas pour les défier, mais pour en apprécier pleinement.
...ne cherche pas la performance extrême, mais veut se sentir à l'aise dans chaque mouvement.
...choisit des vêtements qui placent le confort au premier plan, sans renoncer à la qualité, à la résistance et au style.

PREMIUM-TEX

The waterproofness of a fabric is measured by placing the material under a one-inch diameter water column, that grows until the pressure allows the water to pass through the fabric; the height reached before the water overcomes the lamination defines the degree of impermeability. It is therefore measured in mm of water column. This combination of fabric and lamination guarantee durability up to 20,000 mm.

L'imperméabilité d'un tissu est définie en plaçant le matériau sous une colonne d'eau d'un pouce de diamètre, qui croît jusqu'à ce que la pression permette à l'eau de traverser le tissu; la hauteur atteinte avant que l'eau ne surmonte la feuille définit le degré d'imperméabilité. Il est ensuite mesuré en mm de colonne d'eau. Cette combinaison de tissu et de feuille garantit une imperméabilité jusqu'à 20.000 mm.

L'impermeabilità di un tessuto è definita ponendo il materiale al di sotto di una colonna d'acqua, del diametro di un pollice, che cresce fino a che la pressione permetta all'acqua di attraversare il tessuto; l'altezza raggiunta prima che l'acqua superi la lamina definisce il grado dell'impermeabilità. Si misura quindi in mm di colonna d'acqua. Questo abbinamento tra tessuto e lamina garantisce la tenuta fino a 20.000 mm.

Un tessuto tecnico a due strati: uno strato esterno resistente al vento e idrorepellente e una membrana che assicura traspirabilità e la protezione dall'acqua, generalmente utilizzato per capi imbottiti e foderati.

A two-layer technical fabric: a wind-resistant and water-repellent outer layer and a membrane that ensures breathability and water protection, generally used for padded and lined garments.

The breathability of a fabric is the ability to transport water vapor outside. For clothing, it is essential to be able to release our sweat to the outside as much as possible and guarantee comfort during activity. It is measured in laboratory tests based on how many grams of vapor escape in one-square-meter fabric surface over 24-hours. The breathability found on the fabric is 10,000 g/smq/24h.

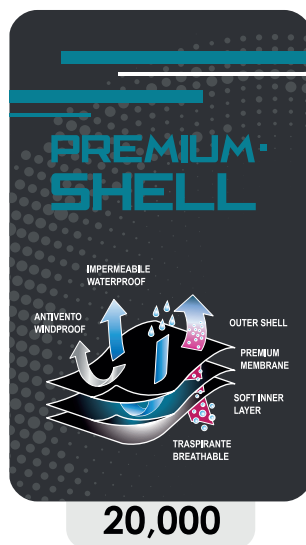

La respirabilità d'un tissu est sa capacité à transporter la vapeur d'eau vers l'extérieur. Pour les vêtements, elle est essentielle pour pouvoir évacuer le plus possible notre sueur vers l'extérieur et assurer notre confort pendant l'activité. Elle est mesurée en laboratoire par le nombre de grammes de vapeur qui s'échappent d'une surface de tissu d'un mètre carré sur une période de 24 heures. La respirabilité du tissu a été mesurée par 10.000 g/smq/24h.

La traspirabilità di un tessuto è la capacità di trasportare il vapore acqueo verso l'esterno. Per l'abbigliamento è fondamentale per poter liberare il più possibile il nostro sudore verso l'esterno e garantire il comfort nell'attività. Viene misurata in test di laboratorio in base a quanti grammi di vapore fuoriescono su una superficie di tessuto di un metro quadro nell'arco di 24 ore. La traspirabilità sul tessuto è stata rilevata di 10.000 g/smq/24h.
